Scargill Movement

Lives shared, Lives transformed

Welcome to our new programme

Autumn is upon us and thankfully the days are cooler so we hope that this programme will bring some cheer to warm your heart and encourage your spirit. There have been many changes to Community life here at Scargill, but God continues to be at work in this special place and we are excited for all the great things planned for 2027.

Do you need time to slow down and nourish your soul? There are many opportunities to find space to breathe through creativity - mindful photography, portrait painting and glass fusing. Or enter into a period of intentional silence on our Lent retreat, 'Grace in the Wilderness'.

Are you looking for something more active, fun for people of all ages? In February we have something new - a weekend just for families to enjoy time together, followed by half term adventures from Toy Story 5 as we go 'to Scargill and Beyond'. In May half term we'll be exploring wonder through the film The Magic Faraway Tree, and the joy of Summerfest will return before we know it!

If you love being outdoors, we offer a plethora of possibilities to enjoy the beauty of Scargill and the glorious Yorkshire Dales. Walking retreats, wildlife wanders, cycling, bird watching, all with passionate and experienced leaders. Make new friends and meet with the Creator as you spend time in nature. For something to stretch the mind, delve into the complexities of the Transfiguration with Andreas Andersson or be inspired by the life and work of C.S. Lewis with actor David Robinson.

However you want to spend some time away, whatever you need to help you survive life's daily challenges, at Scargill we look forward to welcoming you to our home. We can guarantee loads of good food, lashings of cake and the companionship of a community seeking to share God's love. If finance is a problem do ask us about help from our bursary fund. As you peruse this programme, we continue to pray that you encounter God in fresh ways.
With our love, Annie and Scargill Community

Ploughing the ground from Helen Brocklehurst

When I left Scargill after years of being part of the Community, I pictured my life like a winter garden, pruned back, bare earth, no signs of growth above ground. Leaving behind home, church, work and friends all at once is painful and I longed to fill the emptiness. Years later, life is full again but it has taken time to cultivate new friendships, ways of serving and a sense of belonging somewhere else.

The world demands instant gratification so living patiently, allowing fruit to mature in season, and embracing times of rest, preparation and waiting are countercultural practices. Reflecting on the Jewish celebrations of new year which fall in autumn, Paula Gooder writes:

Not much can be grown between October and February but still the year begins. It is a profound reminder of the importance of beginning with nothing. Instead of rushing from one thing to the next with barely a moment to breathe (and then wondering why we struggle to do the next task) ...take a breath, ...allow our own selves to lie fallow if only for a short while so that when the moment comes to begin again we are ready for the recreation it will bring.

The task of the Scargill Community in the next season under Annie's leadership has been described as 'ploughing the ground' ready for another Director. In his poem 'Harrowing', Parker Palmer describes 'ploughing' his own life as he tries to make sense of the past but he ends with a new perspective:

Whatever's been uprooted, let it be Seedbed for the growing that's to come. I ploughed to unearth last year's reasons— The farmer ploughs to plant a greening season.

As the Community 'plough' and prepare for the future, my prayer is for encouragement from the fruitfulness of the past, trust in God's unseen work under the surface, and patience in times of working and waiting for all that is yet to come.

Journey of Discovery from Felicity Lawson

Scargill Council were preparing for Phil and Di's retirement for years, planning details to ensure continuity of vision and values and a smooth handover to the next Director. We advertised last year and shortlisted for interview but unexpected events halted the process. We readvertised in February 2026 but this time there were no applicants. What was God saying to us?!

Phil and Di are pioneers, theirs are hard shoes to fill. In March, a few Council members prayed with Community leadership and discerned God was calling us to have a 'Bridge' period between Phil's retirement and the arrival of the next Director, with a different sort of leadership for the next season of life at Scargill. We discerned that an internal appointment might be the right next step; it became clear that God had already been speaking to Annie about 'stepping up'. After a thorough application and interview process in July, Annie was appointed as 'Community Leader', beginning in autumn. The title reflects that while the job description has not changed, the Community under Annie's leadership will prepare the ground for the appointment of Phil's long-term successor within the next couple of years.

The Council are delighted by Annie's appointment. We planned an overlap between Phil and the new Director; God has given us in Annie someone who is already immersed in the vision and values of Scargill with the skills and experience to help us transition into the new season, preparing the ground for whoever God will call after her. Please continue to hold Annie and the whole Community in your prayers.

Step of Faith from Annie Naish

Have you seen the film clip of Indiana Jones taking a leap of faith? The adventurous archaeologist stands on the edge of a vast chasm with seemingly no way across, but he is told he must step out into the void and trust. This image has been stuck in my mind as God has nudged, prodded and poked me out of my comfort zone into this exciting, scary new role of Community Leader. It does feel like stepping out onto an invisible bridge, trusting that the one who calls me is faithful and He will do it. As I take this leap of faith, as Community journeys into the unknown, and Scargill Movement begins a season of exploration I am convinced that God will not let us fall.

What gives us the confidence to trust at this time of change? This bridge rests on four massive pillars, providing security and courage for the adventures ahead. We are building on our heritage of God's faithfulness, personal testimonies and stories of God's past guidance and provision for Scargill. Working Friends, Companions, Council, intercessors, past Community like Phil and Di form another tower of strength, many extraordinary people who pour their lives into Scargill, creating this precious place so many call home. The current Community forms a resilient yet fragile pillar, a diverse collection of living stones (1 Peter 2:5), awkward shapes and sizes built into something glorious by the architect. The fourth pillar is God's ongoing, generous, compassionate work in the lives of those who come across the cattle grid, using the loaves and fishes (or Mars Bar and crisps!) we offer to transform and restore broken lives.

May we have courage to step out into the unknown, trusting God to show us how to build a strong bridge towards the future, not for the success of Scargill but to glorify God who has called me, and called us 'for such a time as this'.

Update from the Chair of Scargill Council, Andy Arnold

With the appointment of Annie as Community Leader alongside the changing face of Community, the consolidation of the Leadership team, and the continued support of Friends and Companions, Scargill is equipped, under God, to move into whatever the future holds.

I write to emphasise the importance of the Council's role offering wisdom and guidance as Scargill navigates the adventure in response to God's call. Currently we are blessed with an amazing Council: it is probably the most capable and discriminating group exercising oversight that I have belonged to over many years.

We cannot be complacent. Some of us are long in the tooth and will be relinquishing roles in the coming years. While we are well equipped for the present with good financial control, corporate governance and good safeguarding, we currently need new members with legal expertise, experience of working with young people, and some younger members. Looking ahead, we will need people with knowledge of fundraising, finance, corporate governance, environment as well as proven experience in leadership.

I ask for your prayer, discernment and help as we look to the next season. Could you or someone you know be a future member of the Scargill Council?

If you would like to consider joining the Council yourself or you have a potential candidate in mind, please send a personal profile (with their permission if it's someone else!) and contact details to Sheila, our Council secretary on councilsecretary@scargillmovement.org to initiate an exploratory conversation.

Community comings and goings from Jo Penn

The introduction to Scargill Pathway promises likens the task of living as part of the Community to a long walk together over rough terrain, with people joining and leaving at different points, welcomes and goodbyes offered and friendships being made.

Since the last issue of Momentum, before the Summer we welcomed Rowan, Ben, Laura and Claire (Uganda) - each returning to be part of residential community after a few years - along with Tracy. In the Autumn we welcomed Andy, Julie and Roger. We also welcomed Benard from Kenya'.

We said thank you and farewell to Phil and Diane in July (you can catch the farewell service on our YouTube channel). In the Autumn we said goodbye to Ruth and Ben, Mark and Sophie.

There are many ways to be part of Scargill Community and the resident community are grateful for the support of the non-resident extended community and those who come for a sabbatical. People on sabbatical work shorter shifts, allowing time for other work, rest or study, while joining in with some aspects of community life. Recent sabbatical folk include Sue, Andy, Alex and Erik.

Working friends are also vital to the ongoing work of Scargill. Visiting for a week or a weekend to work alongside the community, many of them are regulars, providing continuity, wisdom and energy. You can find out more about different ways to be involved at https://scargillmovement.org/community/

Safeguarding from Phil Goodacre

"Safeguarding" – I wonder what your response to this word is? Here at Scargill we have recently re-written our Safeguarding Policy. Alongside this, members of the community have undertaken training (as it happens provided by the Church of England), but we've then taken time to apply this learning to our own particular, peculiar(!) context here at Scargill. Safeguarding is absolutely to do with policies and procedures and training. But it is about far more than that – it is a fundamental part of our call to offering welcoming hospitality.

Safeguarding is about creating communities where everybody's voice can be heard and valued – especially those who feel vulnerable. Creating community is something we're passionate about here at Scargill. We don't always get it right, but we believe there is something special – divine even – about creating community together. Our shared life is enriched by having people of all ages join together – children, young people, those who are older, and those who are somewhere in the middle! We want everybody to feel welcome at Scargill, both those travelling the journey of recovery and healing, and those travelling the journey of repentance and renewal. Our Safeguarding Policy, which has been externally reviewed, hopefully equips and enables us to do this in the safest way possible.

As part of our community reflections, we've thought about issues of power and control, remembering the example set by Christ, laid out in Paul's letter to the Philippians, of humbly valuing others. We've taken time to consider the biblical imperative to care for those who are vulnerable. We see this modelled in the life and teaching of Jesus. In the letter of James, we are encouraged to look after the orphans and widows – this is acceptable religion. The Old Testament prophets, Amos and Micah, remind the people of God's desire for justice. In Proverbs 31:8 we are commended to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of the destitute. Incidentally, this verse lies behind the name of the Safeguarding Advisory Service – Thirtyone: eight.

Those of us who seek to live according to the Scargill Pathway have committed ourselves to be a voice for the voiceless and to see victims of injustice released from their chains. Good safeguarding practice is part of living out this call – whether that is here at Scargill, or in our local churches or communities. At Scargill we're not claiming to be experts in safeguarding, but we're happy to talk about it, and we believe it is an important part of our life together. In Exodus 3, we are reminded that we have a God who sees, hears, cares and the responds to the needs of the vulnerable. As God's people, we are called to do the same – safeguarding is putting our faith into practice.

Knowing that safeguarding is a serious responsibility, we offer a prayer to encourage us:

Holy Spirit,
you do not wish us to be anxious,
you enfold us with your peace.
It prepares us to live each day
as a day that belongs to God.
Amen.
Brother Roger of Taizé

Thank you from Phil and Diane Stone

Dear friends,

Our hearts are full of gratitude for the love and generosity that you have all shown us. We were overwhelmed by the leaving gift and the number of cards and messages wishing us well with prayers, love and warmth. We were given a beautiful send off by the Community and the wider Scargill Community. Thank you so much!

Our hearts are also full of gratitude for our house in Pershore that is becoming our home. Pershore is an amazing town with plenty of facilities plus only a 10-minute walk from the town centre as well as the countryside.
It's a joy to be near three of our children and our seven grandchildren. Our whole family went on an amazing camping and beach holiday in Pembrokeshire during the heatwave.

Yet the transition from Community, guests, a rule of life and the Yorkshire Dales to just the two of us in a place that is unfamiliar has been really challenging. Di is having to cope with an undiluted Phil! Please pray for us as we grieve and find our way.

Thank you for all your love, and if you find yourselves near Pershore please call in, and if you come around 4pm you can be sure of tea and of course, cake! Just send as an email.

Summerfest 2026!

Our Summerfest programme was packed with exciting activities for everyone! This year, our teaching theme 'Are we there yet?' took us on a journey exploring the diverse stories and travels of people throughout the Bible.

Guests of all ages joined in the fun, making the most of our varied workshops and activities. We believe there was something for everyone! Whether that meant getting soaked on the wet and wild water slope, trying out archery, enjoying a quiet stroll across the Estate, or learning a new creative skill.

The excitement continued into the evenings. While the children enjoyed a dedicated movie night, adults were treated to performances by talented visiting artists. We wrapped up each day with our late-night chat shows, offering a closer look into the lives of our guest artists and Community members.

To book Summerfest 2027, see later in the programme for details!

The Scargill Podcast

As we step into a new season here at Scargill, we are taking some time to review and refresh our online resources. Once this review is complete, we will share all the latest updates with you in a dedicated email announcement.

In the meantime, you can still easily access our Community led morning prayers, our Podcasts, and our full back catalogue of Sanctuary services. Just head over to scargillmovement.org/online and click on the relevant tabs and links.

This summer, Songs of Praise visited our community to film an episode centered on mountains, featuring several of our members on a scenic walk through the Wharfedale hills.

Additionally, the Christian folk band Celtic Worship used our beautiful chapel to record several worship songs for Songs of Praise. The "Mountains" episode originally aired on August 2 and remains available for streaming on BBC iPlayer.

Coming to Scargill

To come to Scargill is to join the adventure of a community aiming to keep Jesus right at the centre. These are some of the things that we hope you'll find here:

A warm welcome.

Our aim is to welcome each guest as unique and special, as if we're welcoming Jesus, and to see God bring hope and transformation to each person's life.

A serving community

We are a group of people of many ages, nations, backgrounds and denominations whose aim is to love and serve everyone

God sends us. Sharing our lives in community is a rich, encouraging, challenging and costly business, and we want to share lives with our guests too.

Prayer

At Scargill we would love you to meet the living God through prayer. We have a daily rhythm of prayer that you are welcome to join, and members of the community are glad to pray individually with you if you would like this.

Laughter

We've learned here that laughter is not the poor relation of 'serious ministry' – it's a gift from God that transforms and heals.

A guest told us that he laughed here for the first time in two years. We don't mind whether you're laughing with us or at us – we just hope you will laugh!

A beautiful place

The Yorkshire Dales have been rated as the third best region to visit in the whole world – and it's no surprise to us!

Every photo in this programme was taken on or near the Scargill estate – from breathtaking views of Wharfedale to our idyllic walled garden, it really is as beautiful as it looks. And the people are pretty lovely, too!

Ways to enjoy Scargill

Join our programme

We have a huge variety of holidays and retreats on offer, reflecting the things we care about. Join us for activity based breaks, all age holidays, environmental conferences, retreats and events aimed at equipping both churches and individuals.

Come with a group

You are welcome to come as a church, an organisation, or a group of friends. You can book the whole house, or smaller groups can fit alongside our programme. Many people are choosing Scargill for conferences and church weekends, and we are now booked up to the end of 2027. We're happy to lead all or some of your event, or you can bring your own speaker if you prefer.

Come by yourself

Just come if you need a friendly place to stay for a few days - you can create your own holiday or retreat. There will nearly always be someone you can chat or pray with.

Online programme

"We are delighted that we are able to offer online quiet days, hybrid programme events, and our Wednesday Sanctuary livestream service (see Scargill online page). Please check the website for details."

Working friends

We have a terrific group of working friends who love to work alongside the community in the grounds, the gardens, kitchen or house. We cannot function without them! If you're interested in becoming a working friend, please talk to us. Working friends have opportunities to join the planned programme when not on shift. The only expense is a voluntary contribution to cover costs.

Friends and Companions

Our Friends and Companions are wonderful people who support us prayerfully and financially - and some of our events are set aside just for them. If you are interested in becoming a Friend or Companion, do contact us.

Bring the kids!

Holidays for all ages

During school holidays and half terms we run events that are great for all ages. Usually in the morning there are activities for the children and young people so that they have a fun time while the adults enjoy their sessions. In the afternoon there's lots to do together as a family. Bring the children - or grandchildren - and their friends!

These special events are marked in the programme with our 'family friendly' icon. Check the inside back cover for discounts for children, young people and single parent families.

Youth and school groups

Here at Scargill, we would love to hear from you if you'd like to bring your youth group or a school party, for the day or to stay over.

Childcare at other events

If you want to come on an adult event and need someone to look after the children while you engage with the programme, please ask. Depending on the availability of community members, we will do everything we can to help.

Turn and Face the Change

This theme resonates with Phil and Dave as they both face significant changes. We'll journey with Elizabeth and Zechariah, Paul and Mary Magdalene, as God guides them through change, strengthening, comforting and speaking to them through events and people around them. There will be opportunities to share what has challenged and sustained us during times of change.

The rest is history

In fact, the Sacred Diary changed his life. The rest is history... We love hearing other people's histories. Changes. Light and shade. How is God involved in journeys that are rarely straightforward? We have no easy answers but it's fascinating to learn from each other's stories - Sacred Diary characters, folk in the room, and others who have walked closely with Jesus.
